Hole 12

The awe-inspiring 23,000 sq. ft. clubhouse creates an ideal setting for a special event.

Four Star Rating

Golf Digest's Best Places to Play 2008 | 2009

If some of the golf shots on this target venue quicken your pulse, the tranquility of our setting should help to calm and center you. It's no wonder this was the first course in British Columbia that Tiger Woods played, as an amateur in 1994.

Nestled deep inside a pristine Vancouver Island forest, Olympic View first impresses as you survey the horizon from the first tee, the staggered peaks of the Olympic Mountains seem to pierce the sky above. The seventeenth hole encompasses enough natural beauty for an entire course.

From the tee, aim toward a 40 foot hawaiianesque waterfall that frames the green 455 yards away. This signature hole plays through a steep, narrow valley past a huge rock column and a Japanese garden.

Olympic View also hosts the award winning GBC Golf Academy. A state-of-the-art practice facility with nine large natural grass driving areas with five target greens stretching to 330 yards and three short game areas set to deliver private instruction, clinics, golf schools and junior programs. The GBC Golf Academy simulates all playing conditions across 14 acres.

FORESTER'S BISTRO & BAR

Your round at Olympic View concludes beside a stylish clubhouse with floor to ceiling windows and a wrap around patio overlooking holes #1, 10 and 18. The West Coast contemporary cuisine at Forester's Bistro & Bar teamed with the panoramic views and full banquet facilities tantalize your senses for as many as 300 guests.

The golf terrain is punctuated by two waterfalls, twelve lakes and mountain vistas. The holes constitute individual masterpieces that meld together to form a larger work of golf art. The variety of golf holes will etch individual memories and keep you coming back.
